

5. Our Basic Needs

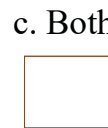

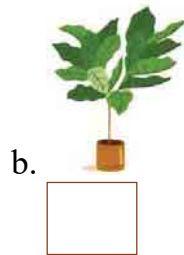

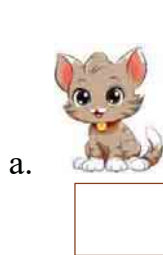

5.2: Water

1. ✓ the correct options.

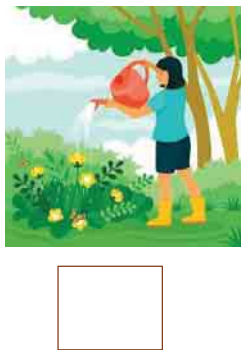

I) If you come home tired, and are feeling thirsty, what would you would like to have first?

II) Which of these need water to live?

2. ✓ the images that show use of water.

3. List any 3 things for which you need water.

4. Label the sources of water.

5. Fill in the blanks using the correct options.

waterbody rainfall snow clean dirty

- A large collection of water is called a _____.
- Waterbodies get water through _____ or the melting of _____ from mountains.
- We must drink only _____ water.
- If we drink _____ water, we will fall sick.

6. Match the columns.

No.	Column A	Column B
1	Sea Water	Drinking water
2	Lake	Wastage of water
3	Pipelines	Salty
4	Throwing garbage in waterbodies	Carry water to our homes
5	Leaking tap	Makes water dirty

7. Find the odd one out, and write the reason why it is odd.

a. sea, river, lake, well

b. bathing animals in a river, throwing garbage in a river, throwing garbage in a dustbin, washing clothes in a lake

8. Write W in the boxes, below the pictures that show water getting wasted or dirty.

9. Write True or False.

- a. Animals don't need clean drinking water. _____
- b. There is a lot of water on Earth, but we can use very little of it. _____
- c. A hollow plastic toy sinks in water. _____
- d. When we add sugar to water and mix it well, it can still be seen. _____
- e. We should not protect waterbodies from getting dirty. _____

10. Connect the images to the correct word.

Sink	Float

11. Write Agree or Disagree.

1. We cannot reuse the water that has been used once.

2. We can collect rainwater in buckets and use it to water plants.

3. We can reuse the water in which we have washed fruits and vegetables.

4. Whether we add sand or sugar to water, nothing can be seen after some time.